OUR THREE LEGACIES JULY

7

STEP SEVEN

Recovery

Humbly asked Him to remove all these defects of character.

TRADITION SEVEN

Unity

Every AA group ought to be fully self-supporting, declining outside contributions

CONCEPT SEVEN

Service

The Charter and Bylaws of the General Service Board are legal instruments, empowering the trustees to manage and conduct world service affairs. The Conference Charter is not a legal document; it relies on tradition and the AA purse for final effectiveness.

STEP 7: HUMILITY

The next word on my well used 3" x 5" card was humility. I had a strong aversion to this principle. To me, humility meant self-deprecation or self-debasement. I'd already done enough of that in my drinking years to last a lifetime.

My sponsor came to the rescue again. She said the word humble came from the Latin word humus, which means earth. She explained that to be humble is just to acknowledge our earthly status. Also, the word human comes from the same root word, humus. She said that we just accept we are being human in this life. We are not gods, nor are we demons, although we humans have the capacity for great selfishness, cruelty, and violence. We also have a great capacity for love, caring and generosity. We are full of talent and creativity and yet, we have a talent for destructiveness. As members of AA, we are striving, through the steps, to embrace the higher qualities and let go of the lower qualities. Her gentle explanation made me feel a whole lot better about humility. She added another word, humor. Though it did not come from the same root word, it seemed to belong. In AA, we learn to laugh at ourselves; our mistakes, our defects, our shenanigans. This laughing at how we take ourselves so seriously becomes a high form of humility. O.K., I was game. I was ready to practice humility.

Then, my sponsor said, Step 7 was the second surrender step. Yes, I had developed my character defects since childhood. I had grown them, nurtured them and used them for a lifetime. However, I, by myself, could not remove them. All I could do was be willing and entirely ready to let them go. Then I was to humbly ask my Higher Power to remove them.

The first one was that horrible jealousy with the underlying beliefs of being inadequate, defective, and deficient. I humbly asked HP to remove it. Since my mode of dealing with jealousy was to hole up, alone, under the covers with hot and cold sweats, a churning stomach, a pounding head and buckets of tears for company, this was probably not very useful to my Higher Power or to my fellows. So, it was removed! And in its place was a growing certainty that I truly am a beloved child of the Universe. Yes, I have character defects, but I am not a walking defect. I am adequate, effective, and whole. Most of my defects have been removed. Some old ones show up in a newer version and some new ones surface. But, now, I have tools to let go of them. And, I can laugh at myself for taking myself so seriously and being so miserable. Life is so much easier without the clutter of defects. And, oh, how I love to laugh!

We still need a group to volunteer to host the Christmas Alcotthon. Please call Central Office if your group is interested.

We always are in need of people for the Home Answering Service. If you have a year or more of sobriety and want to be involved in this valuable service work please call Jim or Lynne at 882-7422 and set up a training time. It takes about 30 minutes.

We are in need of some 12 Step volunteers. If you have a year or more of continuous sobriety, a telephone and a willingness to help the alcoholic who still suffers, then call 882-7422. Just think, the life you save may be your own.

The next Intergroup meeting will be on July 9, 2017 @ 1:30 PM at Central Office.
